

Roll Number: _____

Thapar University, Patiala
School of Humanities and Social Science
END SEMESTER EXAMINATION

B. E. (Fourth Year) EST 2020 (COE/COEM/CAG/CML/ECE/ECM/SE M/ECM)	Course Code: UHU003 Course Name: Humanities for Engineers
B. E. December, 2020
Time: 2 Hours, M. Marks: -50	Faculty: APB, ANS, RKS, SCH, ANP

Note: Attempt any 5 questions
Assume missing data, if any, suitably

- I. "Create with your heart; build with your mind." Critically analyze the three types of creativity in the context of the above statement. ! (10)
2. The ego states can be predicted as behavioral states (verbal and non-verbal) are specific to each ego-state. Discuss the statement in light of three ego-states of Transactional Analysis. (10)
3. For a healthy culture, every nation needs whistleblowers. An employee, who for the interest of society, challenges malpractice or illegality in the organization is a kind of public hero.. Explain the types of whistle blowing and conditions when whistle should be blown, explain with appropriate examples. (10)
4. (a) What is globalization? Why do companies go global? Briefly discuss the strategies for globalization with examples. (8)
4. (b) Explain the meaning of inflation. How is demand-pull inflation different from cost-push inflation? Also discuss various measures to control inflation. (5)
5. What is CSR? What are the voluntary measures taken by TISCO, for employee welfare and social and community development (10)
6. Johari's window is an important tool for enhancing interpersonal relationships. How Johari's window helps in Personal development and group development? Explain with the help of diagram. (10)
7. Explain the five attribute of profession. Explain the Three Pillars of Professional Ethos that are required for professional excellence. (10)